Google Cloud Messaging for Android (GCM) is a service that allows you to send data from your server to your users' Android-powered device, and also to receive messages from devices on the same connection. The GCM service handles all aspects of queuing of messages and delivery to the target Android application running on the target device. GCM is completely free no matter how big your messaging needs are, and there are no quotas.

Volunteer Opportunities

Volunteers are at the heart of Families in Transition family. They play a vital role in helping us provide needed support for homeless individuals and families.

FIT provides many different opportunities to volunteers. In addition to individual volunteers and interns, we welcome group efforts and are happy to organize special projects to accommodate your religious organization, school, service club, or business group.

Ways you can get involved:

- Join us this July in Concord for Market Days 2014 – serve customers and stock racks under our OutFITters tent during this annual event.
- Know a shop that could benefit from our OutFITters tent? Click here to download a flyer to share with interested groups.
- Want to help us out around the office? Click here to download a flyer for a job or college application.
- Put a smile on the face of our families by participating in our annual food drive or by organizing a food drive for our OutFITters Thrift Store.
- Organize a collection drive for one of our many ongoing agency-wide needs or a collection drive for our OutFITters Thrift Store.
- Collect, prepare, and distribute items from our donation center to families in need. We accept non-perishable food items, items from our food pantry, and home essential products.
- Help our maintenance department with landscaping, painting, and repairing our properties to make them more attractive.
- Sort and organize donations at one of our OutFITters located in Manchester and Concord on a regular basis. Click here to download a flyer to share with interested groups.
- Want to help us out around the office? Click here to download a flyer for a job or college application.
- Intern with one of our many departments currently recruiting. Applications are always being accepted, and can be obtained by e-mailing internships@fit.org.
- Be a mentor to one of our participants. Past topics have included budgeting, crafts, yoga, aerobics, etc.
- Become a member of our Board of Directors or one of our many project specific task forces, such as our program development, marketing/communications, development events, and programs & supportive services.
- Participate in FIT fundraising events including our annual Circle of Hope event and our Winter FIT-za.
- Participate in FIT networking events including our annual Circle of Hope event and our Winter FIT-za.

Are you natural leader?

Families in Transition is dedicated to creating leaders in our volunteers. Whether we are creating independent, self-starting individuals or one our volunteer team leaders. Applications will have the opportunity to act as leaders within the agency and prove important resume-building skills. Whether it's acting as a liaison to volunteer applicants, supporting current volunteers, or working with volunteer groups, there are so many ways for dedicated volunteers to truly impact the agency's goals under their leadership.

Volunteer Opportunities

Volunteers are at the heart of the Foundation's mission. They are a vital and indispensable resource helping to further individual families.

FIT provides many different opportunities to its volunteers, from one-time projects to regular volunteer assignments, or encouraging others to join us to organize special projects in our communities, religious organizations, schools, businesses, enforcement groups, etc.

Whether you want to get involved:

- Join us July 11 in Denver for Building Day 2013 – come volunteer and receive a discount on Staff Fees for the first family friendly summer festival! Details here
- Or sign up as a short-term volunteer for an availability calendar! Click here to download a sample form more information on volunteer assignments will be available in the coming weeks.
- For those at the heart of our programmatic grants, ranging in size from small to large, we offer longstanding dedicated supporters.
- Organize a volunteer calendar for our upcoming summer festival! Click here to download a template and see our Staff Fees for Staff Days.
- Collect papers, paint, clean items from our donation center or our participants' – contact your pastor, minister, rabbi, or other religious leader to coordinate a project.
- Help our maintenance department with landscaping, painting and updating properties in underprivileged areas of Denver.
- See and support locations out of our Staff Fees! Click here to learn about locations in General or a specific location. Click here to download a file to recruit your group.
